Thirteen-Year-Old Boy Drowned at Wichita.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 11.-A meeting of packing house employes was held in the chamber of commerce building, at which all classes of labor in the packing houses of the two cities were represented. A temporary organization was effected by the election of a president and secretary. The organization will operate under a of Labor, and will be called the Packing Wighles Hotel Change Mande House employes' union of Kansas City,

It was stated by one of the members, that the new union has no connection whatever with the packing house troubles in Omaha or elsewhere. Its organization was projected, he said, before there was anything of trouble there.

The union will be open to all classes of packing house labor, both skilled and unskilled. It is merely a local affair at present, but efforts will be made to organ zo all packing house employes in the country.

PPANSTIEL'S QUEER JOURNEY.

The Missing President of the Kansas City Packing Company Beturns Home. KANSAS CITY, Aug. 11.—George Pfanstiel, the masing president of the Pfanhome. His disappearance a week ago Monday, created a big sensation. He was sick when he reached home and, after greeting his wife and children, became unconscious and remained in that condition for several hours. When friends called they were not recognized but were called "doctor." He gave a brief before he became nucouscious.

He stated that on the day he was miss-ed he went to the stock yards to buy cuttle for the firm, and while there his mind became unbalanced and when he came to be was in a Deaver hospital. After being discharged from there he went to Colorado Springs, where he was seen by Sheriff Peterson. A letter to his wife from that place stated that he was going to Cripple Creek to buy a gold mine. This was the last heard of him until his arrival home.

Green is a traveling man and is well known in all the larger cities of the state. Five years ago he lived in Topeka, Kansas, where he was married, having a wife and five children. At the time he was covering Kansas territory he met a petite brunette at Salina, Miss Lilly Kuhn. After a time Green deserted his wife and family and came to Cedar Rapids, bringing with him Miss Kuhn, whom he introduced as his wife. They moved in good society, were enthusiastic cyclists and attracted considerable attention. Mrs. Green arrived from Topeka, and after a consultation with the police, swore out a warrant charging her hus-band and Miss Kuhn with improper relations. They are now in jail.

A. E. Green was formerly proprietor of the place known as the Poppendick house on East Sixth street and sold out about five years ago.

The attorney general of Illinois at moon today filed a petition asking that the charter be declared void on the grounds that its provisions have been violated. The petition sets forth that the charter as granted allowed the company to purchase, control and convey such property as was necessary to successful prosecution of their business. The corporation has far exceeded its privileges, the document declares, owing o a vast amount of real estate in the town of Pullman and vicinity which is in no wise necessary to the business. The petition declares that the company has practically usurped the powers of municipality, owning numerous business L. blocks, residences and factory sites, controlling the stock in other corporations, and furnish power to other manufactories.
